Yahshua's Young People

“Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.” (1 Tim 4:12)

COMPASSION

Yahweh and Yahshua show us the most compassion. Yah so loved the world that He gave His only begotten son to die for us. This is the greatest gift of compassion.

Compassion is defined as showing sympathy and concern for the suffering or misfortunes of others (Google Dictionary). Showing compassion demonstrates the second commandment: to love our neighbor as ourselves (Mark 12:31). If Yahweh shows us compassion everyday of our lives by forgiving us of our confessed sins, we should also show compassion to others.

A very good example of compassion is the story of the Good Samaritan. Yahshua said:

“A certain man went down from Jerusalem to Jericho, and fell among thieves, which stripped him of his raiment, and wounded him and departed, leaving him half dead. And by chance there came down a certain priest that way: and when he saw him, he passed by on the other side. And likewise, a Levite when he was at the place, came and looked on him, and passed by on the other side. But a certain Samaritan as he journeyed, came where he was: and when he saw him, he had compassion on him. And went to him, and bound up his wounds pouring in oil and wine, and set him on his own beast, and brought him to an inn, and took care of him. And on the morrow when he departed, he took out two pence, and gave them to the host, and said unto him, take care of him; and whatsoever thou spendest more, when I come again, I will repay thee. Which now of these three thinkest thou, was neighbor unto him that fell among thieves?... Go, and do thou likewise.” (Luke 10:30-37)

Yahshua wants us to show compassion to others. It could be as simple as calling or texting a sick friend or relative to see how they are doing; volunteering in your community at the hospital or food bank or opening the door for an old lady. Whatever the act of kindness big or small, you will experience a nice feeling inside. Helping others can give you one of life’s greatest joys. Moreover, great shall be your reward in the kingdom of Yah.
